

African Sepsis Symposium

Update on Sepsis in Africa
All You Need To Know About
Paediatric and Adult Sepsis

4 // Oct // 2018

Diani Reef Hotel, Ukunda

Symposium Programme

Morning Session:

Update On Sepsis and Specific Aspects of Management in Africa and Kenya

Objective: Provide CPD About Sepsis Prevention, Diagnosis and Management and Initiatives From Kenya

0800 - 0830	Registration
0830 - 0900	Opening Ceremony: Global Sepsis Alliance - Dr. Tex Kissoon, African Sepsis Alliance - Dr. Emmanuel Nsutebu, African Federation of Critical Care Nurses - Mr. Cliff Alliga
0900 - 0920	Sepsis Definitions and the Challenge of Sepsis Recognition in Africa - Dr. Jamie Rylance, Senior Lecturer, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine
0920 - 0940	Current Recommendations in Sepsis Management - Dr. Shevin Jacob, Senior Lecturer, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine
0940 - 1000	Paediatric Sepsis: What Do We Need to Know? Prof. Katherine Matiland, KEMRI Kilifi
1000 - 1030	Panel Discussion (Q&A)
1030 - 1100	TEA BREAK
1130 - 1150	Antibiotic Resistance and the Need for Antibiotic Stewardship in Kenya - Dr. Enoch Omongo, University of Nairobi
1150 - 1210	Maternal and Neonatal Sepsis: An Audit of Facilities in Nairobi - Prof. Zahida Qureshi, University of Nairobi
1210 - 1230	The African Sepsis Alliance: Opportunities to Improve Sepsis in Africa - Dr. Emmanuel Nsutebu & Dr. Kamal Osman
1230 - 1300	Panel Discussion (Q&A)

1300 - 1400 LUNCH

Afternoon: Parallel Sessions

Session A

Establishing Collaborative Efforts in the Fight Against Sepsis in Children: Paediatric Sepsis Data CoLabs Workshop - University of British Columbia

Objective: Moving forward following the WHO resolution on improve paediatric sepsis outcomes in resource-poor settings. Identifying pragmatic and concrete next steps

1400 - 1430 Focusing on the fight against sepsis in children - prioritization of efforts

1430 - 1530 Presentation: Paediatric Sepsis Data Colab - developing a new international data sharing network in the fight against pediatric sepsis

1530 - 1550 TEA BREAK

1550 - 1630 Breakout: What are your priorities in your context for pediatric sepsis? What are areas of priority for the Ped Sepsis Data Colab? What tools?

1630 - 1700 Building on the strengths of collaboration: Next steps, Leadership, Governance, Network members

Session B

1400 - 1430 The Role of Biomarkers in Sepsis Management - TBC

1430 - 1500 Infection Control Teams and Hospital Acquired Infections: The Kenyan Experience - Catherine Waswa, Moi Teaching and Referral Hospital, Eldoret

1500 - 1530 Proposed Sepsis Pathway for Resource - Limited Facilities - Ms. Cornelia Ouma / Dr. Wangari Silka, Aga Khan University Hospital, Nairobi

1530 - 1600 Panel Discussion (Q&A)

1600 - 1700 Closing Remarks and Evaluation

1800 - 1900 African Sepsis Alliance Annual General Meeting

Speakers

Prof. Kathryn Matiland
Professor of Paediatrics Tropical Infectious Diseases at Imperial College London. Leads a research group in East Africa that conducted the PEAST trial

Dr. Emmanuel Nsutebu
Chair of African Sepsis Alliance, Consultant Infectious Diseases, Physical at the Tropical and Infectious Disease Unit of the Royal Liverpool Hospital

Dr. Nirranjan Kissoon
Past President of the WFPIC Societies, Vice-Chair of Global Sepsis Alliance, Vice-President, Medical Affairs, BC Children's Hospital and Professor, Pediatric and Surgery at UBC, Vancouver, Canada

Dr. Shevin Jacob
Infectious Diseases Physician, Senior Clinical Lecturer in Sepsis Research at Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine and Affiliate Assistant Professor, University of Washington

Dr. Jamie Rylance
Consultant Respiratory Physician and Senior Clinical Lecturer, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine

Prof. Zahida Qureshi
Associate Professor, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, University of Nairobi

Prof. Ged Williams
Founding Chair/Past President of WFPIC, Advisory Board Member of ASA, Chief Nursing Officer of Haringey Hospital, UK and Adjunct Professor of Nursing, Griffith University

Prof. Paul Fulbrook
President of World Federation of Critical Care Nurses, Professor of Nursing, School of Nursing, Midwifery & Paramedicine (ACU), Monash University, Australia, Nursing Director, Research & Practice Development, Prince Charles Hospital, Brisbane, Australia and Honorary Professor Faculty of Health Sciences, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa

Dr. Kamal Osman
Consultant in Adult Critical Care Medicine, Deputy Director of Adult Critical Care Medicine Department, Onduman Military Hospital, Khartoum, Sudan

Dr. Enoch Omongo
Specialist Physician, Lecturer in Clinical Pharmacology and Therapeutics, University of Nairobi

Dr. Wangari W. Silka
Kenyan Lead, African Sepsis Alliance, Consultant in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care, Aga Khan University Hospital, Nairobi

Catherine Waswa
Vice Chair, Kenya Critical Care Nurses Chapter, Senior Critical Care Nurse, Moi Teaching and Referral Hospital, Eldoret

Cornelia Ouma
Senior Critical Care Nurse, Nursing Practice Instructor, Aga Khan University Hospital, Nairobi

Mr. Cliff Alliga
President, African Federation of Critical Care Nurses (AFCCN)

Registration Fees: KES 3,500

Payment Details:

- Account Name:
Critical Care Society of Kenya
Bank: Diamond Trust Bank
Branch: Parklands
Account No: 0050275839001
- Mpesa Paybill No: 516600
Account: Sepsis

*complimentary registration to attendees of the KCCNC Annual Scientific Conference

The Pediatric Sepsis CoLab

Workshop will run parallel to the Symposium from 2pm - 5pm

To learn more about Sepsis Colab visit:

<https://bcchr.ca/pediatric-sepsis-data-colab>

For more information, contact: Tel: Phoebe Khagame - +254 724 867 320, Email: admin@anaesthesiakkenya.co.ke, Website: <https://criticalcarekenya.co.ke/>